DAFFODILS

by William Wordsworth

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees, Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars
that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance, Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them
danced, but they
Out-did the sparkling
leaves in glee;
A poet could not be but
gay,
In such a jocund company!
I gazed—and gazed—
but little thought What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive
mood,
They flash upon that inward eye

Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

Refugee Tutoring at United Methodist Neighborhood Center

Golden Key is tutoring refugee children every Thursday from 3:30 to 4:30 pm at the United Methodist Center at 3000 Walnut Grove.

2007 International Conference in Atlanta, GA August 2-5

Mark your calendars for the 2007 Golden Key International Conference in Atlanta, Georgia on August 2nd to August 5th. The deadline to let Matthew know you are attending is April 5th to ensure all paperwork is submitted by deadlines. Both members and officers are eligible to attend, and funding may be available from the Student Government Association for the trip. Contact Matthew (mteal@memphis.edu) if you have any questions or wish to attend.

Golden Key Annual Sophomore Recognition

Our annual sophomore recognition event is scheduled for April 24th from 7:30 to 9 :00 p.m. Please invite all your friends who are sophomores and have a grade point average of 3.5 or higher. In order to maintain our Gold status, we must have at least one prospective member attend this event. Contact Jessica (jspice@memphis.edu) if you would like to help with this event. Remember inviting/bringing prospective members does earn points for Member of the Year. To let every one know the Sophomore Recognition take the place of the April General Member's meeting, so every one is invited to attend. We will have food for you to enjoy as well as fellowship with current and hopefully future Golden Key Members.

Semi-Annual Graduates' Breakfast

We need volunteers to bring food for our semi-annual graduates' breakfast. Please let us know what you can do to assist us with this event. All members, alumni members, and honorary members are encouraged to attend. Let's make this a great event. It will be the week of April 23rd or the week of April 30th. The location will be announced at a later date. Check your e-mail as more details are to follow.

Tennessee Baptist Children's Home

Here is another wonderful service project that Golden Key is involved in. Project Golden means Our next planned service event is at the Tennessee Baptist Children's home (located at the intersection of Summer and Stage Roads in Bartlett) on May 4th from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.. Volunteers are needed, so please let us know if you are interested in helping and we can find an area for you. We plan on spending time with the children by playing games and maybe even eating some snacks. Any other ideas you may have are welcomed and encouraged.
